

1. Fees and Charges

A. Fees Payable on the Credit Card by the Card Member

- Annual Fee: The annual fee for each card member may vary and is communicated when applying for the Credit Card. These fees are billed to the card account and reflected in the card statement.
- Renewal Fee: Renewal fees may apply, similar to annual fees, and are billed annually.

B. Cash Advance Fee

- When using the Credit Card to withdraw cash from ATMs in India or abroad, a transaction fee will be levied on the amount withdrawn and billed in the subsequent statement.
- The transaction fee is subject to change at ICICI Bank's discretion.
- All cash advances also carry finance charges until full repayment, subject to change.

C. Charges

- Certain charges and fees apply for specific services or defaults.
- ICICI Bank reserves the right to revise, introduce, or remove fees with prior notification to customers.

D. Interest-Free Period

- The interest-free credit period ranges from 20 to 50 days, depending on the specific Credit Card scheme and merchant claim submission timelines.
- Not applicable if the previous month's balance remains unpaid or if cash withdrawals are made from ATMs.

2. Credit and Cash Withdrawal Limits

- ICICI Bank determines the credit and cash withdrawal limits for each card member, which are communicated at the time of card delivery and reflected in monthly statements.

- Limits may be revised based on internal credit assessment, with immediate customer notification.
- Card members can request a credit limit increase by submitting required financial documents.

3. Billing and Statement

- Finance charges are applicable to transactions and cash advances not paid in full.
- Finance charges on cash advances are applied from the transaction date until repayment.
- If less than the Total Amount Due is paid, finance charges will accrue on the outstanding balance as well as new transactions until full repayment.
- ICICI Bank will send monthly statements showing transactions, payments, fees, and outstanding balances.
- Payment Due Date: Payments must be made on or before the 5th of every month.
- Payments can be made through Net Banking, ATMs, Phone Banking, NEFT, Fund Transfer, or other available modes.

4. Right of Lien

The Bank reserves the right of lien and may set off any monies in the card member's accounts if the outstanding balance on the Credit Card is not repaid within the prescribed time.

5. Termination / Revocation of Card Membership

- Card members may terminate the card by submitting a written request and returning the physical card (cut into two pieces).

- The Bank may restrict or terminate usage in cases of unusual transaction patterns, non-payment, or credit limit breaches.
 - The Bank may suspend the facility in case of default.

6. Loss / Theft / Misuse of Card

- Card members must immediately notify ICICI Bank's 24-hour Call Centre in case of loss, theft, or misuse.
 - The Bank is not liable for transactions incurred before reporting the loss.
 - Card members remain responsible for losses due to fraudulent or negligent usage.

7. Reward Points

- Reward points are earned for eligible transactions as per the card's reward program.
 - Points are valid for a specified duration and may be reversed for certain transactions such as cancellations or refunds.

8. Disclosure

- ICICI Bank may disclose Credit Card information to credit bureaus and regulators without prior notice.
 - Card members are responsible for keeping themselves updated on applicable regulatory guidelines.

9. Lounge Access

- Complimentary lounge access is subject to limits defined for each card variant.

- Charges apply once the complimentary limit is exceeded.
- Priority Pass or other lounge cards are non-transferable and must be handled securely.
